Michigan State Police Trooper assigned to Paw Paw named 2025 Trooper of the Year

PAW PAW - Sgt. Lena Wresinski, assigned to the Paw Paw Post, was recognized as the 2025 Trooper of the Year. The Gerstacker Trooper of the Year Award recognizes the MSP trooper or sergeant who symbolizes outstanding professional ethics, dedication to duty and a concern for giving back to their community. The late Dr. Carl A. Gerstacker, former chairman of Dow Chemical Company, created the award in 1961.

Sergeant Wresinski demonstrates true leadership every shift and isn't satisfied with status quo. She hones her skills quietly and is highly respected as the kind of person every trooper hopes to work under – steady, sharp and always ready to step in. Her peers indicate she handles tough situations with both professionalism and heart, according to a MSP press release.

When managing a 10-car pileup during a winter storm, she identified a child in need of transport to the hospital but there was no way for an ambulance to get close enough. Without hesitation, she loaded the child and their parent into her cruiser and took them to the hospital.

Sergeant Lena Wresinski

Last May, Sergeant Wresinski was instrumental in organizing a canine handler reunion and recognition at the post to honor all those who had served there since 1963 when the first handler was assigned.

She has voluntarily placed herself in the National Marrow Donation Program, selflessly donating blood and stem cells saving an untold number of lives. Because Sergeant Wresinski lost a colleague and close friend to cancer, she now assists with planning and running the annual Kalamazoo Department of Public Safety Golf Outing that honors her friend.

Sergeant Wresinski enlisted with the MSP in 2014 graduating as a member of the 126th Trooper Recruit School.

Paw Paw Fire Department battles harsh weather while fighting structure fire

PAW PAW - The Paw Paw Fire Department was dispatched to the 63000 block of 38th Street in Paw Paw Township at approximately 2:30 a.m. on Friday, Jan. 23, for the report of a structure fire with flames and smoke showing.

Initial units arrived at the scene to find a fully involved garage and well-involved house on fire.

"Fire fighters from Paw Paw, Lawton and Decatur were very resilient and battled brutal single digit temperatures and snow for several hours," said Paw Paw Fire Department Fire Chief Kyle Richardson.

Fire fighters cleared the scene at approximately 6:30 a.m. A total of 20 Paw Paw fire fighters responded. The exact cause of the fire is unknown currently and is under investigation, according to Richardson.

The Paw Paw Fire Department was assisted by the Lawton and Decatur fire departments, Van Buren Emergency Medical Services, and Van Buren County Sheriff's Office Central Dispatch.

Richardson said of the single digit temperatures, "Regarding the cold and snow, it definitely adds an obstacle that we have to overcome and makes our job more difficult, but we are very prepared to handle harsh winter conditions."

Richardson said, "Exposure to cold temperatures takes a toll on the fire fighters. It becomes very important for the chiefs to keep an eye on all fire fighters operating on the fire ground to make sure personnel are being rotated out. The extreme cold temperatures are also hard on our equipment. At the start of every winter, we put our apparatus in "winter mode" which includes draining the pumps to prevent any freezing within the pump while en in route to a call. It becomes critical to utilize help from our neighboring departments for assistance and have an A, B, C plan when dealing with extreme winter conditions."

Paw Paw Village Planning Commission meets tonight (Thursday, Feb. 5) to review proposed new Culver's restaurant, new music stage at Warner Vineyards

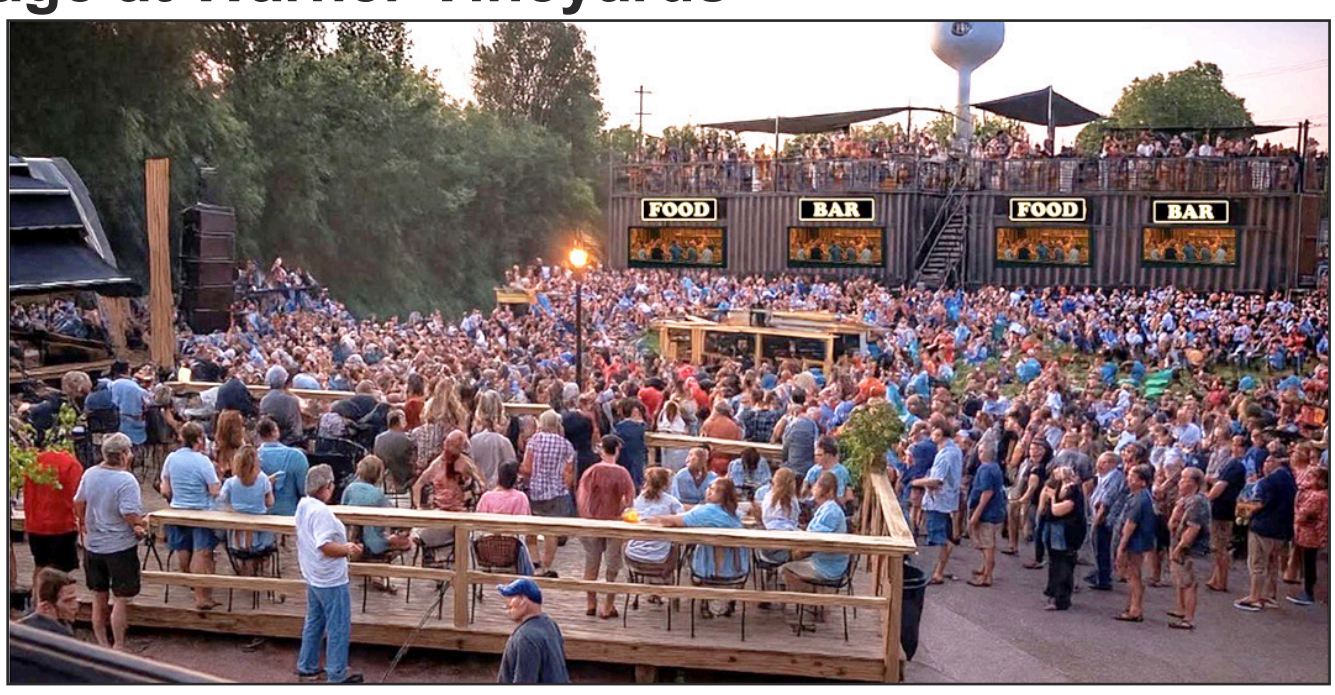
PAW PAW – The Paw Paw Village Planning Commission will meet Thursday Feb. 5, for a public hearing on two items, a site plan review for Culver's restaurant, who has proposed building on County Road 665, near the Shell gas station, and also a site plan review for a new stage and renovations to Warner Vineyards proposed plan for its music venue.

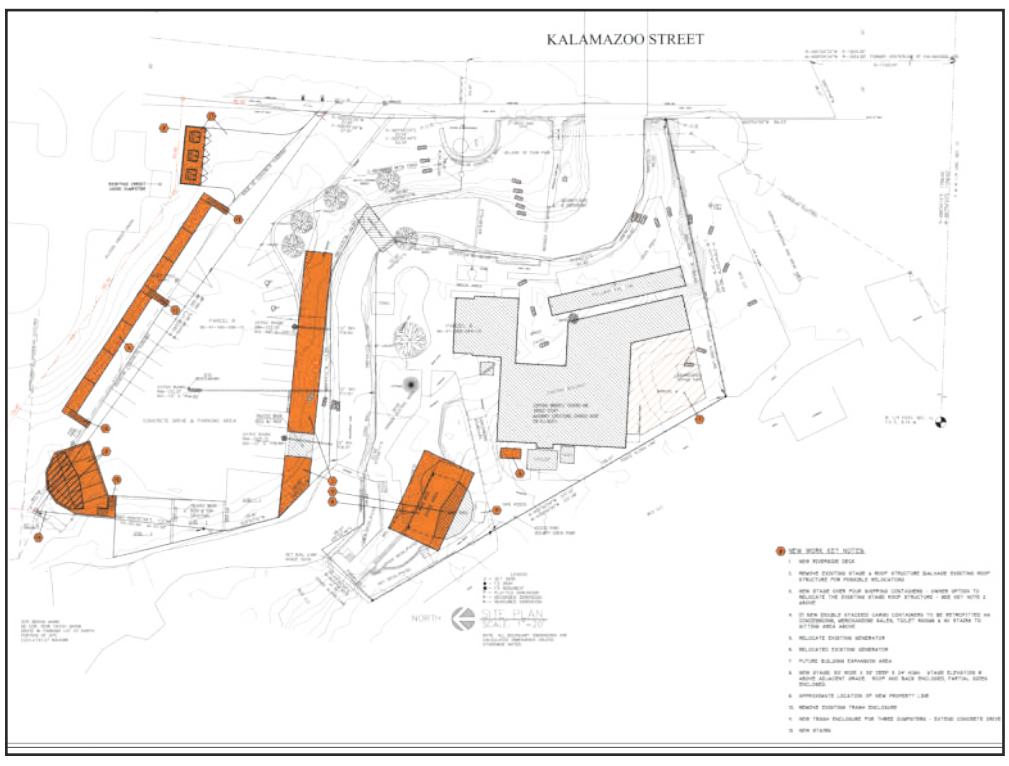
Paw Paw Village Manager Bryan Myrkle said he has received positive public comments through emails supporting the construction of a Culver's restaurant. Emails have stated that there is excitement in the fast-food restaurant locating in Paw Paw. "The vast majority are very excited about it," said Myrkle.

He said the restaurant's proposed site plan is subject to change. A late spring or early summer opening is planned.

At Warner Vineyards, business owner Pat Warner is proposing several changes and renovations to the music venue.

A wooden stage that had been used for concerts is being proposed to be moved from its current southern location to the northern property line, where it will become premium seating.





Myrkle said that Warner has experienced problems in bringing touring acts to the Paw Paw site due to the small size of the stage. Myrkle said there is an industry standard size stage that touring acts prefer and Warner's stage does not meet that standard. With a larger stage it will allow Warner's access to a wider array of acts according to Myrkle. In relocating the current stage to the north, Warner is proposing to place the stage on four shipping containers that would serve as its foundation. The proposed new stage would be 50 feet wide, 32 feet deep and 24 feet high. The shipping containers would be transformed into food bar sites, merchandise sales, and restrooms.

According to Myrkle, Warner plans to have 65 shows this year, with the season stepping off in May.

Hostetler named new county dispatch director

Van Buren County Dispatch Director Tim McGee, center, retired Jan. 30, concluding a career in public service that spanned decades. McGee had served as Dispatch Director since 2016. McGee's journey into public service began at the age of 12, when he ran fire calls alongside his father with the Norway Fire Department in Norway, Mich. By the age of 14, he had already joined a volunteer search and rescue team with the Dickinson County Sheriff's Office. Throughout his career, McGee has worn many hats in service to the public, including security officer, police officer, associate pastor, lead pastor, chaplain for SHEAS and the South Haven Police Department, and dispatcher. McGee began at Van Buren County Central Dispatch in 2005 as a dispatcher, before retiring as Dispatch Director. Shown in photo with McGee, from left, Undersheriff Casey Davis, and at far right, Sheriff Daniel Abbott. Photo courtesy/Van Buren County Sheriff's Office

The new dispatch director officially began that role at 3 p.m. on Jan. 30. "Mike Hostetler was selected to fill the foreseen vacancy with Tim McGee's retirement," said Van Buren County Sheriff Daniel Abbott.

"Mike worked the past several months alongside Tim to make it a smooth transition. Mike brings a lot of experience to the new role he's taking on. Mike has a total of 32 years in dispatching, beginning his career at South Haven's dispatch center from 1993-1999. Mike started his career here in February 2000, putting him here for just over 26 years. Mike has been one of the supervisors in dispatch over the last several years. Mike was a SHEAS firefighter for approximately 10 years and a marine deputy here for 10 years. We are excited to have Mike in his new role and have no doubt he'll pick up right where Tim left off," said Sheriff Daniel Abbott.

Dispatch Director Tim McGee's last day was Jan. 30, 2026. "We wish Tim all the best in his retirement. Tim had a long history of public service dating back to when he was 12-years-old running fire calls with his dad in 1972. Throughout Tim's career, he was a member of a search and rescue team, security officer, police officer, associate pastor, lead pastor, chaplain for different agencies, and working in dispatch centers ending his career here as the director. Tim is going to be missed greatly as he's done such a good job here. We all truly wish him the best," said Sheriff Abbott.

Van Buren County Sheriff's Office Uniform Response handled a single vehicle crash in Keeler Township. The driver of the vehicle was highly intoxicated and was ultimately lodged for the incident, according to Sheriff Daniel Abbott. No injuries occurred during the incident.

Uniform Response was very busy once again with multiple crashes and slide-offs this past week. "One deputy came very close to being hit by a semi driving way too fast for the conditions and jack knifing by them after passing another deputy who also witnessed the close call." said Sheriff Abbott.

Uniform Response handled a serious crash on Interstate-94 Highway in which a truck pulling a trailer rear-ended a semi. The driver of the truck had to be extricated from the vehicle. The driver was transported to the hospital with serious injuries. "This unfortunately is another grim reminder to slow down in bad weather, especially when visibility is poor," said Sheriff Abbott.

A deputy stopped to assist some individuals not from the area on a slide-off. The individuals advised they already called for a wrecker, but it wouldn't be there for 1.5 hours. "The deputy inquired about which wrecker, and it wasn't a service he was familiar with even though they told the individuals they were from Paw Paw. The deputy called the number and found immediately it was a scam and they charged the individual/victim for $600 in advance. The victim was able to cancel the transaction before it cleared. The scammers were using a boost phone. They were able to set it up on the internet so when googling a wrecker from the area, they would pop up," said Sheriff Abbott.

Uniform Response handled a break-in, in Arlington Township. The suspects broke into a residence that is being remodeled and updated. Several tools and items were stolen in the overnight hours. "The tools that were stolen had "Nacho" written on them. Anyone with any information on this is asked to call our office," said Sheriff Abbott.

PAW PAW - Serving more than four decades on the Van Buren County Economic Development Corporation, Rodney Dragicevich, who earlier announced his retirement, was honored Monday afternoon by the county EDC, as well as state legislators and county officials.

Dragicevich, who served 42 years on the county EDC board, received a state Special Tribute from State Representative Pauline Wendzel. It was also signed by State Senator Aric Nesbitt.

It read in part: "That it is with deep appreciation for the hard work, dedication, and professionalism that Rodney Dragicevich has put forth on behalf of the people of Van Buren County that we offer this expression of our thanks and best wishes in retirement. As the people of Van Buren County recognize the loyalty and devotion to public service of this hardworking individual, we add our sentiments of gratitude for a job well done."

It continued, "In 42 years of service to the people of Van Buren County, Rodney Dragicevich has been working in the public arena during an era of great change and challenge. As Rodney well knows, financial pressures and changing expectations have combined to make the recent past a challenging time to work in local government. With the personal sense of duty that Rodney Dragicevich brings to work each day, however, he has been able to meet this challenge with enthusiasm and a genuine interest in efficiency in public service. This has been deeply appreciated, both by citizens and organizations in Van Buren County that have benefitted directly from Rodney Dragicevich's work as well as other public servants who have witnessed this fine example."

It concluded, "There can be little doubt that in his responsibilities as a member of the Board of Directors and the Economic Development Corporation since 1983, Rodney Dragicevich has contributed to our community in ways that will have a lasting impact. We offer our thanks on this personal milestone."

Van Buren County EDC Board Chair Tom Stanek presented Dragicevich with a plaque that read: "With gratitude for your service and commitment to our community."

Commissioners approve adoption of five-year parks and recreation plan

By Paul Garrod
Staff Writer
news4garrod@gmail.com

PAW PAW – On Jan. 27, the Van Buren County Board of Commissioners adopted the Community Park, Recreation, Open Space and Greenway Plan: 2026–2030 as the official five-year Parks and Recreation Plan for Van Buren County.

Commissioners authorized submission of the adopted plan and the resolution to the Michigan Department of Natural Resources for approval and grant eligibility purposes.

Van Buren County is required to maintain a current five-year Parks and Recreation Plan approved by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources (DNR) in order to remain eligible for grant funding through the Michigan Natural Resources Trust Fund (MNRTF), Land and Water Conservation Fund, and other related programs.

Van Buren County, with assistance from the Southwest Michigan Planning Commission, undertook a planning process to determine the recreation and natural resource conservation needs and desires of its residents during a five-year period covering the years 2026 through 2030, consistent with the most recent guidelines developed by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

Van Buren County residents were provided with an opportunity during the development of the draft Plan to express opinions, ask questions, and discuss all aspects of the Community Park, Recreation, Open Space and Greenway Plan.

The draft Community Park, Recreation, Open Space and Greenway Plan: 2026–2030 was made available for a minimum 30-day public review period, with appropriate public notice and reasonable accommodations for public access and comment.

A public hearing on the proposed Plan was held on Jan. 13, to provide an opportunity for all residents to express opinions, ask questions, and discuss all aspects of the Plan.

The Van Buren County Parks and Recreation Commission reviewed the Plan and recommended adoption by the Van Buren County Board of Commissioners.

The Plan serves as a policy and planning guide for improving recreation opportunities and enhancing natural resource conservation within Van Buren County, and adoption of the Plan is necessary to maintain eligibility for state and federal recreation grant programs administered by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

In another area, Commissioners recognized and extended its appreciation to Rodney Dragicevich for his "exceptional service, leadership, and dedication to the economic vitality of Van Buren County. Commissioners honored Dragicevich for his longstanding commitment to the community and its businesses and extended best wishes for him for continued success in all future endeavors.

Dragicevich had been "an outstanding and dedicated member" of the Economic Development Corporation of Van Buren County since 1983, serving seven terms "and positively impacting countless businesses throughout the county."

Commissioners said during Dragicevich's tenure as a member of the Board of Directors, one of Dragicevich's key achievements was helping to bring the discount department store chain Fisher's Big Wheel to the Village of Paw Paw, a location now occupied by Family Fare Supermarket.

Dragicevich faithfully guided the use of the County Revolving Loan Fund, overseeing the lending of millions of dollars to multiple businesses and communities to support growth and long-term sustainability, creating jobs, encouraging significant capital investment, and helping to stabilize the county tax base.

In response to the economic challenges of the 2020 COVID-19 pandemic, Dragicevich played a key role in authorizing twelve $20,000 loans at a two percent interest rate over five years, with interest-only payments during the first year, providing critical assistance to small businesses impacted by the pandemic.

Commissioners approved a resolution for the Van Buren County Brownfield Redevelopment Authority (VBCBRA) to apply for a $500,000 Community-Wide Brownfield Assessment Grant from the United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), with support from the Michigan Department of Environment, Great Lakes, and Energy (EGLE).

The EPA Brownfields Program provides funding to assess, plan for, and prioritize the cleanup and reuse of properties where real or perceived environmental conditions have limited redevelopment. The proposed grant would fund Phase I and Phase II environmental site assessments, cleanup planning, and related environmental investigations at eligible brownfield sites throughout Van Buren County.

Commissioners said access to community-wide assessment funding will reduce redevelopment risk, improve site readiness, and position local units, nonprofit partners, and private developers to advance environmentally responsible reuse of underutilized and vacant properties. The grant will create opportunities to support environmental and economic development projects, including redevelopment for housing, commercial activity, public infrastructure, and community-serving uses, while promoting environmental protection and long-term land reuse.

Assessment funding will help ensure that redevelopment efforts consider public health, environmental conditions, and equitable community outcomes, including benefits to areas impacted by disinvestment or limited redevelopment capacity.

The VBCBRA has successfully administered prior EPA Brownfield funding and has the organizational capacity, technical support, and financial oversight necessary to manage the grant in compliance with all applicable federal and state requirements.

Commissioners said if the grant is not awarded, no financial obligation or material cost will be incurred by Van Buren County.

Commissioners approved the appointment of Anne Wendling to the Van Buren Cass Community Health Department Board for a three-year term to expire January 1, 2029. She fills a vacancy on the VBCCHD Board that was created when former Commissioner Don Hanson decided not to request a re-appointment.

Wendling, RN, is the Chief Nursing Officer and vice president of Patient Care Services, Bronson Lake View and Bronson South Haven hospitals.

Commissioners approved a request for out-of-state travel for Van Buren County Sheriff's Office Detective Chris Orr to attend the Digital Video Recording (DVR) Training in Hoover, Alabama, from Feb. 8 -13.

It is a one-week course designed for examiners/investigators to learn methodologies and techniques used to recover and analyze video evidence from Digital Video Recorders (DVR) and other sources. Students will develop knowledge of digital video data structures, how digital video is created, proper playback, creating demonstrative exhibits and reporting of findings.

Commissioners approved the Board Chair to sign a contract authorizing the Court's continued partnership with Safe Harbor Children's Advocacy Center for CASA services.

Safe Harbor CAC actively recruits and trains volunteers for Van Buren County's CASA program. There are currently five volunteers and the feedback from contract attorneys is positive.

The contracted amount continues to be $80,000 for FY26.

Commissioners approved signing a contract authorizing the Court's continued use of the Allegan County Juvenile Center for lodging youth when there is a need for youth and/or community safety. Courts are required by childcare fund requirements to employ a quality assurance specialist to support the county with implementing and maintaining research-based practices related to juvenile justice reform (JJR).

Allegan County Juvenile Center is a reliable partner in the juvenile justice needs of Van Buren County's youth. They assist with stabilization and safety, monitoring and education, medication management, and are quick to respond to emergency requests for lodging.

The financial impact depends on the number of youth lodged. In FY25, the financial impact was $202,401.20 for 915 days of out-of-home care. This program receives 50 percent reimbursement from the childcare fund.

Commissioners approved signing a contract with Petersen Research Consultants that will continue the Court's relationship with Dr. Jodi Petersen as the county's Quality Assurance Specialist.

Petersen has a long-standing relationship with Van Buren County and has been intensely involved with JJR since its beginning. Over this past year, she has begun compiling and analyzing recidivism data and training for consistent risk needs assessment.

The contract is for $19,150.

Commissioners approved the Court's continued agreement with MST Associates who provides MST Program support and training that allows VBCMH to offer the Multisystemic Therapy model for Van Buren County youth. It is an intensive in-home evidence-based therapy.

The contract with MST Associates is $52,000.

Commissioners approved a contract authorizing the Court's continued partnership with the VBCMH for a parent navigator.

The VBCMH employs an individual who has extensive knowledge of the child protective system and community resources. Cecily Hodder serves as a bridge for clients and supports them. Commissioners said this innovative service is often enough to allow children to stay in their homes before a case has to come to court.

The parent navigator has also been a turning point in long-standing complex court cases where parents no longer had trust in the system.

Commissioners said Ms. Hodder's knowledge and expertise are a priceless service to the families.

The $117,000 contract represents a $20,000 increase over the prior contract. This increase is offset by decreased spending in the CMH–MST contract for FY26.

Commissioners approved a request for Ryan Smith, Trial Court Administrator, and Veronica Stillson, Family Division Administrator, to attend the 2026 National Association of Court Management Mid-Year Conference March 15-18, in Albuquerque, NM.

Kim Kiley and Roger Engle were reappointed to the Southwest Michigan Planning Commission for a two-year term to expire Dec. 31, 2027.

SHARA receives grant for summer program

Chris Van Hekken

By James Windell

Thanks to a grant from the state of Michigan's MiLeap Program, the South Haven Area Recreation Authority (SHARA) will be running a summer program for children.

Community Recreation Director Chris Van Hekken says that grant was received in conjunction with the Van Buren County Intermediate School District.

"We're going to have enough funding to host a summer program, which we will have at Maple Grove Elementary School this summer," Van Hekken says. "It will be a 6-week camp that will run Monday through Thursday for ages kindergarten through 4th grade."

Earlier this month, the Michigan Department of Lifelong Education, Advancement, and Potential (MiLEAP) announced the awarding of $73 million in Out-of-School Time (OST) Grant funding to 289 Michigan organizations to expand access to high-quality, before-school, after-school, and summer learning opportunities for students statewide. The Van Buren County Intermediate School District was awarded $1,012,860 through Michigan's 32n Out of School Time (OST) Grant, which is administered by MiLEAP.

Van Hekken says that SHARA will be partnering with the South Haven Center for the Arts in the summer camp program. "The Center for the Arts will be helping us with the educational piece," Van Hekken says. "Our focus will be the outdoor learning space at Maple Grove Elementary School. They have 10 acres of wooded classroom space outside, and we'll be having our classrooms out there."

Van Hekken says that any child in the South Haven school district can attend the summer camp. Registration will open up on March 15, 2026 and more information can be found on the SHARA website at https:southhavenrecreation.org.

Three Blondes wins Chili Cook-Off Contest for the first time

By James Windell

After The Lodge won the Chili Cook-Off for the past four years, Three Blondes Brewing beat them out in the popular Ice Breaker event this year.

"We are so excited!" says Carrie Troyer, one of three co-owners of the restaurant at 1875 Phoenix, in South Haven. "They had a stronghold over this award for a while, so it was a lot of hard work for us to win. I feel like we got really lucky."

Taking a few minutes off from serving a bustling brunch crowd on Sunday, February 1, Troyer says that Chef Antoine deserves the credit for the winning chili. Troyer says their chili is a buffalo white chicken chili, however, Chef Antoine described in a slightly different way.

"It's a buffalo chicken wing without the work," the chef says.

No matter how it is described, the tasty chili was a big order item at the restaurant on the day after winning the contest.

Three Blondes Brewing is a hometown success story. Three sisters, Carrie Troyer, Megan Zernicke, and Amanda Johnson, grew up in South Have, but returned in 2018 to start a community centered brewery that reflects their personalities, family roots, and love of craft beer.

The idea of a brewery grew out of a family project, but the sisters spent years researching, planning, and experimenting before launching the business. When they opened their doors, they became one of the first women brewery owners in Michigan. Now they are known for more than 50 rotating beers, locally inspired food and a lively taproom atmosphere.

Talking about their success in the Chili Cook-Off, Troyer seemed to exemplify the friendly spirit of their brewery.

"You know tough competition only makes you better," she says. "So, we appreciate that that we have good, strong competition. It's great to have friendly competition here in South Haven."

She added that it was great seeing people come out and eating chili downtown during Ice Breaker while supporting all the businesses in South Haven.

"We just love Ice Breaker," she says. "It's been just a great weekend and Ice Breaker is a real boost. It's just lovely."

Messing with your brain to fix tremors, my week in a fog

MIKE'S MUSINGS

MIKE WILCOX
PUBLISHER

It's been a week.

Struggling with the cold and snow has been one thing, but last Tuesday I had an appointment for focus ultrasound on the brain and since then I have literally been in a fog.

Now some readers might point out that messing with my brain might knock sense into me- sense that is much needed. But sorry, that wasn't the reason for the state-of-the-art procedure.

I have struggled with essential tremor most if not all of my life. It is a malady that makes my dominant hand- my left shake constantly, sometimes uncontrollably, thus drinking, eating or writing my own name is difficult. It is hereditary. My father had it, my sister has it, and my son has had it since birth. It can be embarrassing. You can't eat from a buffet. You get teased by classmates. People think you're an alcoholic.

One of the reasons I had doubt about this procedure was my full head of hair. I had always worn it long and was not looking forward to a shaved head. I was told it was cool to be bald. I'm not sure if I bought into "its cool to be bald mantra" but I was convinced to go for it, which I did, and can't wait for the day when I have lots of hair again.

The new procedure pinpoints exactly the area of the brain that causes the tremors and then zaps it with laser beams to stop the shaking. It is very similar to an MRI, except you are in the machine for about an hour. The final minute of that hour is very intense. The pain and pressure is unbearable.

I was going to slide out from under the machine when that final minute hit me. I couldn't take the pressure. Then I remember the doctor telling me it will only be a minute. I figure I can withstand any pain for a minute. And I did.

I wasn't prepared, however, for the following days. The doctor, nurses and literature all told me I would have headaches, brain fog and dizziness for two weeks. Well, I'm writing this on Day 6, and I'm struggling to write and remember what I was told 5 minutes ago. I wasn't supposed to drive for 2 weeks, but I broke that rule on day three.

It will be a miracle if this column makes sense. It's surreal. I feel stoned without the marijuana. I can't hit the right keys and everything is so slow, even my speech. I have to be careful how I walk because I might tip over. I actually did on day four, pulling a muscle and scraping up my left side substantially.

I'm told, and I'm confident that by the time you read this the brain fog and dizziness will be gone. I will almost be back to normal except now I can use my left hand.

My fiancé is amazed. My son was flabbergasted. Immediately after the procedure the left hand was fully functional. I could drink a glass of water immediately. I could write my name without using my right hand to steady my left.

I'm asked constantly if you would do it again. I wouldn't hesitate. In fact, I might ask them to do my right hand in a few months.

And my apology to those readers who would like to see me in a permanent state of brain fog. Ha ha, it ain't gonna happen.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

ICE villainized despite being lauded under Obama

Dear Editor,

Under the Obama regime Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) were lauded by him and the media for their outstanding work. But now ICE is villainized for performing the same duties, in the same fashion. The only difference is that they are now operating under a Republican administration. The Obama regime deported some 3 million illegal aliens and it was considered the right thing to do. Then Biden, or those who manipulated him, allowed and or invited some 20 million unvetted aliens from around the world to enter our nation in his single term. As was stated at the time and we now know for certain, among these illegal aliens were terrorists and criminals.

Immigrants are never to be a financial burden to American taxpayers. A seldom mentioned fact is that for decades federal law requires all immigrants demonstrate they be self-sufficient or have a U.S. sponsor legally responsible for guaranteeing to support the immigrant at least at 125% the federal poverty guidelines. The only exception to this rule is if the immigrant is granted political asylum, which certainly does not apply to most if not all of those in question.

The only reason the left has created the chaos in Minnesota and now nationally is to distract attention away from the discovered billions of American tax dollars stolen by fraudulent business enterprises initiated and operated by legal and illegal aliens, Democrat leaders and their associates.

Liberals shamefully portray every illegal alien as if they are all honest hardworking citizens contributing to the benefit of our local communities. Where in reality they could care less about the rapists, murderers, child traffickers and those that disdain our nation and feel they are somehow entitled to our endless tax dollars. As long as they vote Democrat and provide the business or Non-Government Organization (NGO) fronts necessary to launder money to corrupt politicians, activist judges and their accomplices.

And of course, the left can't make an accusation against the Trump administration without dragging out the old, false and always tiresome claim of racism.

The left continues to strictly hold to the belief "repeat a lie often enough and it becomes the truth", a statement attributed to Joseph Goebbels, Adolph Hitler's Reich Minister of Propaganda.

Liberals and the main stream media now make the absurd claim that ICE is not a law enforcement agency and have no police authority and are therefore themselves breaking the law. They state that it's illegal for ICE to request proof of identity or legal status. Again, they are wrong as law enforcement can request ID from immigrants legal or otherwise (as any non-citizen aged 18 and older are required by federal law to always carry ID), and law enforcement has the legal authority to request ID from anyone they suspect of criminal activity. This includes obstruction of justice or interfering with law enforcement, that gives ICE the right to perform exactly as they are.

The left claims they are exercising their 1st amendment right of peaceable assembly by rioting, destroying public and private property, assaulting private citizens, law enforcement and military personnel. This behavior does not fall under the protected right of freedom of assembly. Once again, the left gets it wrong since they never bother to learn anything of our Constitution they falsely claim to be protecting.

Time after time they surround themselves in an avalanche of hypocrisy and deceit. Renee Good, prior to being shot by ICE officers, thought she had the right to obstruct federal law enforcement, disobey direct orders and then attempting to drive her vehicle towards an ICE officer. Alex Pretti, after already engaging in an altercation with ICE days earlier after screaming, spitting and flipping off ICE officers and childishly kicking out an ICE vehicle tail light and then runs away like a coward. His final acts were to refuse to obey ICE commands and was shot while officers attempted to subdue and then to disarm him. I certainly don't fault Pretti for legally carrying a concealed weapon, but when law enforcement tells you to surrender your weapon it's a good idea to surrender it. Things have never changed in this country and when you are instructed by law enforcement you follow their instructions. A simple enough concept that even liberals should be able to understand. One can disagree with whatever legal policies law enforcement may be engaged in. But that does not permit people to disregard the law simply to accommodate their own feelings.

The unlawful sanctuary city policies in Minnesota are responsible for the number of federal agents there. In lawful American cities local law enforcement works in conjunction with federal agencies allowing them to do their jobs efficiently. But since additional federal officers are required to do the work of local law enforcement in Minnesota, we have what we now have. Sadly, most of the rioters and agitators don't even have a legitimate reason for being there other than hating Donald Trump and America. Renee Good is portrayed as an innocent wife and mother killed by law enforcement. Yet, unarmed Ashli Babbitt was a wife and a U. S. Air Force veteran who was shot and killed by U.S. Capital Police Lieutenant Michael Byrd while the left justified if not celebrated her murder. Alex Pretti's name cannot be mentioned without also exclaiming that he was an ER nurse. Laken Riley, a 22-year-old nursing student who never had the opportunity to become a nurse, was brutally murdered and sexually assaulted by an illegal alien. But the left just considers her, and many other similar victims, collateral damage for the greater good of open borders.

Then there was the illegal assault of the Cities Church in St. Paul, Minnesota. It is a federal crime under Title 18 USC 241: "If two or more persons conspire to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or because of his having so exercised the same". Don't believe the lie that this was a simple legal protest. Not since such activity was deemed illegal due to similar actions by the Ku Klux Klan. This persecution and intimidation against worshipping Christians occurred regularly in 1930's Germany and currently throughout many Communist and Muslim nations. But such barbarism should never be tolerated in America.

The Democrats need to remember that the majority of our nation elected Donald J. Trump to be our president, not our homecoming queen. We want our border laws enforced with illegal aliens deported or imprisoned. We want the fraudulent money laundering of our tax dollars to cease immediately. We want corrupt judges removed from the bench and criminals punished. In short, the rule of law reestablished.

Democrats like to lecture that no one is above the law. Good and Pretti are prime examples of those who act as if they are. These entitled low-information progressives were exactly who Vladimir Lenin had in mind when he referred to western liberals as "useful idiots" in promoting communism. The American left and the new Democrats have chosen sides. They have openly allied and now march with anarchists, communists and radical Islam in their opposition to any America First initiative or any effort that benefits American security, prosperity and the values of our Republic.

I hope and pray that the elected Republicans and at least some real Democrats will open their eyes and fulfill the oath of office they all took to support and defend our Republic and our Constitution and then back President Trump in his endeavors.

For the past year we have heard the imbecilic statement that "Words are violence", a statement usually uttered by someone who has never experienced violence. Although words can instigate violence, when violence occurs it is never mistaken for words.

As for those entitled snowflakes and angry white liberals who believe they somehow don't have to abide by the laws of our nation because they don't want to, all I can say is buckle-up buttercups. I'm guessing they're in for an adult dose of reality that they are hardly prepared for.

Drop in crime credit goes to police

Dear Editor:

The January 29th 2026 article "Professor touts gun crime intelligence centers for reducing violence" talks of "A key inititative" is the Detroit Crime Gun Intelligence Center (CGIC) and the National Integrated Ballistic Information Network (NIBIN).

The professor mentions these systems have been used since 2020 but the article does not mention any statistics from those years, only that the crime rate fell in 2025. I am skeptical of someone who touts their own work is so significant without giving any data from 2020-2024. A web site with statistics would help us see more information.

The drop in crime is not likely one persons efforts. Credit also needs to be given to the hard working police officers in blue working the streets day after day. I also believe the operation of ICE agents and Trump administration policies to arrest and deport illegal aliens has something to do with the drop in crime. I read over 2,200 criminal illegals in Michigan, have been arrested and are being deported. I also would like to know if the Detroit Police Department and the County Prosecuter improved operation and had any impact on the drop in crime rate. I believe the professor leaving others out of the equation tells me she is looking for the limelight and all the credit.

Mass Deportation Is Wrong In So Many Ways

Dear Editor:

On Saturday, January 24, federal immigration enforcement agents killed another U.S. citizen in Minneapolis, Minnesota. This victim's name is Alex Pretti – a nurse working in the intensive care unit at the Veterans Administration hospital. Perhaps you have seen the many videos of the killing. He was directing traffic and using his phone to record video of a protest against the brutal and illegal tactics employed by Trump's ICE and Border Patrol agents. An agent near Mr. Pretti pushed a woman to the ground and he moved to help her. The agent discharged pepper spray directly into his face and, with the help of several other agents, wrestled him to the ground. In the ensuing scuffle, agents discovered that Mr. Pretti had a handgun, which he was legally permitted to carry, in a holster on his hip. One agent removed the handgun from the holster, then another agent shot Mr. Pretti. In the next few seconds, as he lay motionless on the ground, agents fired 9 more shots into his body.

As they did with the killing of Renee Good earlier this month, the administration immediately, and falsely, claimed that the dead person was at fault; that Mr. Pretti had brought his gun to the protest with the intent to kill as many agents as possible and that the agents fired "defensive shots". The video evidence clearly shows that many agents were nearby and could have been shot, if that was his intent. However, the video evidence also clearly shows that the only item ever in his hand was his phone.

The administration's mass deportation initiative is wrong in so many ways.

•The agents use unnecessary brutality and violence when apprehending subjects;

•The agents violate the 1st Amendment by subjecting peaceful protesters to arrest, tear gas, beatings, pepper balls, and rubber bullets; 2 people have been killed this month alone;

•The agents violate the 4th Amendment protections against unreasonable search and seizure by entering homes and cars without a judicial warrant or other probable cause;

•The agents violate the 14th Amendment requirement that no person can be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process by relocating detainees to unknown places within hours of apprehension and without opportunity to contact family members or an attorney.

•The agents operate as paramilitary units wearing body armor, masks, and without identification;

•The agents operate without accountability as shown by the Secretary of Homeland Security's refusal to allow independent investigations of their violent actions;

•The Department of Homeland Security has illegally detained U.S. citizens;

•The Department of Homeland Security illegally detains and deports undocumented immigrants that have followed our laws while seeking asylum.

•The U.S. Attorney General has now stated that one of the conditions for ceasing the DHS operation in Minnesota is for the state to turn over to the federal government the state's voting records. This is not immigration law enforcement; it is extortion.

These are just the legal reasons the mass deportation effort is wrong.

The entire idea of mass deportation is based on lies. The administration has demonized undocumented immigrants as being dangerous and a drain on the economy. Yet, instead of seeking out and deporting violent criminals to make communities safer as promised, the administration has established quotas for the number of deportees that can only be met by detaining and deporting undocumented immigrants with no criminal history. Non-violent immigrants of all varieties start businesses that create jobs; they work in jobs most citizens don't want and pay taxes, including payroll taxes that support Social Security and Medicare benefits most will never receive. Nor do they qualify for other benefits like SNAP.

Immigrants come here for the same things we all want – a safe place to live with opportunities to provide for our families. Deporting immigrants does not make us safer. It makes us poorer – economically, culturally, and morally.

Should print person's name

Dear Editor:

Regarding the "Person falls into Lake Michigan while walking on ice shelf" story in the1/29/26 paper.

I wish you'd publish the person's name. Public shaming is sometimes needed to get the point across that it was a dangerous and ignorant thing to do.

The person needlessly endangered first responders and other lives.

Thank you,

BLOOMINGDALE — Bloomingdale boys basketball put on an offensive showcase Thursday night, defeating White Pigeon 84-66.

"The Cardinals played at a blistering pace, pushing the ball in transition and overwhelming White Pigeon with constant pressure, resulting in the program's highest team scoring output in seven years," coach Mark Parsley said.

"Bloomingdale had eight different players score in the game, led by a dominant performance from Javon Pittsley, who poured in a game-high 36 points.

"Pittsley was relentless in the open floor and efficient in half-court sets, setting the tone offensively all night," Parsley added. "Aiden Byers orchestrated the offense early, piling up assists in the first half before shifting gears and taking over as a scorer in the second half. Byers finished with 21 points, showcasing his ability to impact the game in multiple ways."

Parsley said Ryder Flynn added a strong offensive night, recording his best scoring performance of the season with nine points. Flynn attacked the basket aggressively and capitalized on his opportunities in transition.

"With its fast-paced style and balanced scoring, Bloomingdale controlled the tempo throughout and turned defense into offense to secure the 84-66 victory," Parsley said.

MATTAWAN — Marcel Stork of Mattawan is among the 120 finalists for the Michigan High School Athletic Association's Scholar-Athlete Awards for the 2025-26 school year, presented by Farm Bureau Insurance, it has been announced.

The program, in its 37th year, has recognized student-athletes since the 1989-90 school year and again this winter will honor 32 individuals from MHSAA member schools who participate in at least one sport in which the Association sponsors a postseason tournament.

Farm Bureau Insurance underwrites the Scholar-Athlete Awards and will present a $2,000 scholarship to each recipient. Since the beginning of the program, 991 scholarships have been awarded.

Scholarships will be presented proportionately by school classification, with 12 scholarships to be awarded to Class A student-athletes, six female and six male; eight scholarships awarded to Class B student-athletes, four female and four male; six scholarships awarded to Class C student-athletes, three female and three male; and four scholarships awarded to Class D student-athletes, two female and two male. In addition, two scholarships will be awarded at-large to minority recipients, regardless of school size.

Every MHSAA member high school could submit as many applications as there are scholarships available in its classification and could have more than one finalist. This year, 95 schools have a finalist, with Birmingham Groves and Flint Powers Catholic atop the list with three apiece. Twenty-one schools have two finalists: Ann Arbor Greenhills, Bay City Central, Birch Run, Bloomfield Hills, Bloomfield Hills Academy of the Sacred Heart, Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook Kingswood, Corunna, Detroit Country Day, Frankenmuth, Grand Ledge, Holland, Holland West Ottawa, Midland Dow, Mount Pleasant Sacred Heart, Negaunee, Northville, Okemos, Plymouth, Royal Oak, White Lake Lakeland and Yale.

Multiple-sport participation remains the norm among applicants. The average sport participation rate of the finalists is 3.02, up from 2.88 a year ago. There also are 82 three-plus sport participants in the finalists field, up from 75 in 2024-25, and all 31 sports in which the MHSAA sponsors postseason tournaments are represented — including field hockey and boys volleyball, which joined the MHSAA's championship lineup this school year for the first time.

Of 426 schools which submitted applicants, 20 submitted the maximum allowed. This year, 1,438 applications were received. All applicants will be presented with certificates commemorating their achievement.

The applications were judged by a 72-member committee of coaches, counselors, faculty members, administrators and board members from MHSAA member schools. Selection of the 32 scholarship recipients will take place in early February. Class C and D scholarship recipients will be announced Feb. 3, Class B scholarship recipients will be announced Feb. 10 and Class A scholarship recipients will be announced Feb. 17. All announcements will be made on the MHSAA Website.

To be eligible for the award, students must have a cumulative grade-point average of 3.50 (on a 4.0 scale) and previously have won a varsity letter in at least one sport in which the MHSAA sponsors a postseason tournament. Students also were asked to respond to a series of short essay questions and submit two letters of recommendation and a 500-word essay on the importance of sportsmanship in educational athletics.

Athletic directors give views on NIL expansion

By John Raffel

PAW PAW — Athletic directors locally gave their views after it was announced last week the Representative Council of the Michigan High School Athletic Association has approved an expansion of personal branding activities (PBA) – also commonly referred to as Name-Image-Likeness (NIL) – allowing student-athletes at MHSAA member schools, effective immediately, to potentially benefit from such opportunities.

The MHSAA said it previously allowed some PBA opportunities, including the abilities for student-athletes to conduct camps, clinics and private lessons. The expanded policy allows student-athletes to capitalize on PBA through several more options as long as those activities are individual opportunities for individual students – while not disrupting competitive equity that would result from the creations of group activities including collectives and other pay-for-play opportunities now the norm at the collegiate level.

The MHSAA noted that the topic of PBA/NIL had been discussed at length with membership over the last three years during MHSAA Update meetings and various other conferences with schools and their administrators. The Council had debated the possibility of these rule changes since the Michigan Legislature proposed amending state law to allow for student-athletes' use of NIL in 2023, and also after closely monitoring similar developments in surrounding states.

"We have said from the start of this conversation that the MHSAA could be comfortable with a policy that provides individual branding opportunities for individual student-athletes, and this rule change provides those while excluding the possibility of collectives, and boosters and school people getting involved in those activities," MHSAA Executive Director Mark Uyl said in a statement.. "This is the essence of what NIL was supposed to allow in the first place, and we're confident we've crafted language that allows true NIL opportunities without affecting competitive equity among our member schools."

Additional activities allowed by the new PBA policy include social media endorsements and promotions, personal appearances, photo sessions or autograph signings; modeling, advertising, merchandise, sports cards or apparel sales; and the use of a student's name, image or likeness in marketing materials.

Alan Farnquist is Paw Paw athletic director.

"My immediate thought is that it could keep kids in Michigan that might otherwise leave (to states that allowed NIL). It may create animosity or divisiveness between athletes, and could potentially cause ineligibility issues if it's not done properly. I already had social media blowing up last night with a couple of business owners licking their chops).

"We're a small enough community where local businesses may 'sign' athletes to these deals as a way to make them look/feel big time. I really wish the MHSAA had given us warning about this, and have educated us ahead of time so that we can properly educate our kids, coaches, and communities on what can and can't happen now."

Fred Smith is Bangor's athletic director.

"Since I sit on the MHSAA Representative Council and have been in on the discussions about NIL in Michigan the past three years, I am in full support of the decision to allow high school athletes the opportunity to earn money from 'Personal Branding Activities'.

æThis policy brings the MHSAA in step with 46 other states. By the MHSAA developing the policy rather than the legislature, they were able to control the opportunities for student athletes. This allows an individual athlete to earn money through social media endorsements, personal appearances, photo sessions, autograph signings, modeling, advertising, merchandise, sports cards and apparel sales.

"The Personal Branding Activity is driven by the individual, not the school. It must be approved by the MHSAA seven days prior. The only cons would be when individuals try to stretch the rules. However, the MHSAA experiences that in all of their rules. Penalty for abusing the PBA by an individual school could result in expulsion from the MHSAA. I do not believe this will impact most schools in Southwest Michigan. This policy is really for the 'elite' athlete."

SHAES in 2025 had another record year for responses

SOUTH HAVEN – South Haven Area Emergency Services (SHAES) continued a trend of increased responses, particularly medical related, during 2025, according to the department's Annual Report.

Marking its 29th year, the SHAES Authority serves the city of South Haven and the townships of Casco, Geneva and South Haven. The department is comprised of 22 full-time staff and 31 paid-on-call firefighters protecting 97 square miles of land and several miles of Lake Michigan shoreline from three stations. The department has 22 members who are licensed EMT-Paramedics, 1 EMT- Advanced, 12 EMT-Basic, 1 Emergency Medical Responder, 8 Cadets and 21 who are certified firefighter instructors.

For the twelfth consecutive year, the number of calls has increased from the previous year to a record 2,920 incidents. The previous record, set in 2024, was 2,699. It was the greatest increase in call volume from year-to-year. A decade ago (2015) the call volume was 2,183.

Four new career members were welcomed to SHAES during 2025, bringing valuable skills and fresh perspectives to the department.

"Our people are the foundation of SHAES," said executive director Brandon Hinz. "The continued growth, development and transition within our ranks reflect both opportunity and the natural evolution of a strong organization."

Annual requirements for Fire and EMS continuing education take a considerable amount of time, but are necessary in order to keep members' skills honed, according to Hinz.

In 2025 there were 2,021 calls on the medical side compared to 1,851 in 2024. Looking back a decade (2015), medical calls numbered 1,704. In 2025, 1,138 of the medical responses required Advance Life Support (ALS) services.

Last year there were 1,204 calls in the city of South Haven, followed by South Haven township 815, Casco township 470 and Geneva township 378. SHAES provided mutual aid to other fire departments and EMS agencies on 53 occasions.

Property losses from fire in 2025 dropped to $524,473compared to $812,050 the year before. Losses by governmental unit were city of South Haven, $271,273, South Haven township, $112,000, Casco township, $95,220, and Geneva township, $46,000. By comparison, the property saved from fire loss during the responses total totaled $13,800,000.

"In 2025, we continued strengthening both individual staff skills and specialized response capabilities," said Hinz. "The SHAES' West Side Rope Rescue Team was established and the SHAES Dive Team saw increased participation and continued growth."

Four new career members were welcomed to SHAES and a firefighter and two Cadets were added to the Paid-on-Call roster. Firefighter/paramedic Brian Montgomery was promoted to captain.

Retiring after distinguished service were Lieutenants Dustin Guminski (25 years) and Mark Kaput (25 years), FF Patrick Quinn (17 years) and FF/Paramedic David Griessel (12 years).

SHAES continued its robust inspection program which made 2,496 contacts, including 816 short-term rental and 95 food vendor fire safety inspections during the year. In partnership with the American Red Cross and state-sponsored MI Prevention program, SHAES staff installed 280 smoke/carbon monoxide alarms throughout the community free of charge.

"This is an on-going service provided to our community," said Hinz. "A simple phone call to 269-639-1496 will results in the service being provided." Free smoke alarm sign-ups have also been posted at area schools and Van Buren Senior Services.

There were no civilian fire-related deaths in 2025. There were three emergency incidents in which responders were injured requiring medical attention.

The National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) sets a benchmark goal of 8 minutes for fire/EMS responses to an incident. This is from the time of dispatch to the arrival on the scene of the incident by the first unit. SHAES during 2025 had an average response time of 5 minutes, 48 seconds. The average response time by unit of government: city of South Haven, 4:07; South Haven township, 5:09, Geneva township, 6:52; and Casco township, 7:02. The department bolstered personnel presence at its township stations to improve response times.

Recognitions awarded during the year included FF/EMT Ronald Wise, Firefighter of the Year, and Training Officer Shawn Smith, Leadership Award.

Department members presented the fire safety message to more than 1,100 kids at local schools and sponsored its 25th annual Fire Safety Fun Fair. The department also participated in the city-sponsored Touch-a-Truck event. Two successful pancake breakfasts brought the community together while supporting department initiatives.

"Community risk reduction and public engagement remain central to our mission," said Hinz. "Through prevention programs and events, we strive to build strong relationships while improving public safety."

The SHAES Honor Guard participated in several community events including the annual Salute to Veterans and a 9/11 Vigil at the downtown Firefighters Memorial. The name of deceased Fire Chief Sherman (Sherm) Dykstra was added to the Michigan Firefighter Memorial.

Three new off-road response trucks were put into service, and an order was placed for a custom-built fireboat that will enhance the department's ability to respond to emergencies on Lake Michigan and surrounding waterways. Donations from local and regional organizations, along with fund-raising efforts, funded the purchase of new battery-powered extrication equipment.

Planning Commission responds to City Council objections to Master Plan

By James Windell

The South Haven Planning Commission called a special meeting for Wednesday, Jan. 28, 2026, in order to deal with the South Haven City Council's objections to the Master Plan revision.

Scheduled at 5:00 pm, the meeting went on to 8:05 pm, however, significant progress was made in responding to the City Council's stated reasons for failing to approve the revised Master Plan.

On September 15, 2025, the South Haven City Council rejected the Master Plan and agreed to return it to the Planning Commission with a request to recraft certain portions of three areas. Those areas would be: 1.) protect 89 North Shore Drive from being rezoned commercial in the future; 2.) protect the City from having developers put in manufactured housing developments on inappropriate parcels of land; and 3.) protect the property at 120 Baseline Road from becoming a manufactured home community.

In rejecting the Master Plan, as submitted by the Planning Commission, the City Council seemed to be responding to the groundswell of opposition to portions of the document that has been in the revision process for many months.

The City Council sent the following desired changes to the Planning Commission:

- That the Master Plan provide additional guidance regarding the Manufactured Housing Community (MHC) land use and zoning district. Specifically, that language be added to the Master Plan clarifying that 1) MHC would not be an appropriate land use in areas with environmental contamination without proper remediation proposed, 2) any MHC land use must be compatible with the surrounding area, 3) that maps 9-16 related to coastal resilience be considered in any decision to rezone property to MHC.
- That the future land use map designation for the property at the corner of North Shore Dr. and Oak Ct. (specifically 89 North Shore Drive as Bunde's Bakery) be changed from Commercial to Multi-family/ Attached Residential. The City Council has concerns that the current designation in the future land use map will lead to the erosion of the residential character of the neighborhood.
- That additional language be incorporated into the Master Plan to specify that the property on Baseline Rd. (commonly referred to as 120 Baseline) has been identified as an area where residential land use is appropriate for single family homes or attached residential dwellings and not resorts; specifically, workforce and missing middle housing would be most appropriate.

As the Special Meeting of the Planning Commission got underway, Zoning Administrator Kelly Getman-Dissette noted that the Planning Commission would go need to go through the three primary statements of objections from the City Council one by one. "The plan is to tackle these one at a time so that we can make sure we are staying on topic," she said.

To begin discussion, Chair Bob Sherman suggested that the commission take up the item regarding 120 Baseline first, "Which is one of the core items in the City Council's objections," he said.

After considerable discussion, a motion was made by Commissioner Clark Gruber to submit a statement to be added to the Master Plan to satisfy City Council's objection by responding to all three points in the first objection. Gruber's motion was that residential land use would not be appropriate in any areas with environmental contamination without proper remediation proposed; any residential land use must be compatible with the surrounding area; and maps # 9 - 16 related to coastal resilience be considered in any decision to rezone property to residential land use.

That motion was amended by Commissioner Mike Campbell when he added that the language of the motion by Gruber be added to the future land use section of the revised Master Plan. That amendment and the original motion were unanimously approved.

With that objection resolved, the Planning Commission then took up the question of the future land use map designation for 89 North Shore Drive, where Bunde's Bakery is located. Sherman introduced discussion of this objection by noting that "The City Council thinks it should not be designated commercial but should remain as it is currently is – which is multifamily."

Various suggestions for dealing with this item were proposed by Commission members. Commissioner Mary Hosley offered a motion: "I move to direct staff to prepare language that low impact commercial establishments, like bakeries, would be allowed in multifamily RM1 districts, and to provide alternative language whether use by right or special land use to allow the Planning Commission to further refine as needed."

Since this motion did not address the future land use map, Commissioner Campbell amended the motion to include changing the future land use map for the property at 89 North Shore Drive to multifamily residential.

After clarifying questions and discussion, the Commission unanimously passed this motion.

The final item on the council's list of objections was then addressed. This item had to do with 120 Baseline Road. "I think there was language from the 2018 Master Plan that was lost in translation," Sherman said. "The council would like to see that language restored."

A motion was proposed by Commissioner Larry Heinig to the effect that the Planning Commission concur with the request of the City Council on item number three in their Resolution 2025-35 and the wording there be inserted appropriately back in the Master Plan.

After more discussion, this motion was also passed with all commissioners voting in favor of it.

Getman-Dissette and City staff will work on the language of the motions and return them to the Planning Commission in the future. After the Planning commission approves these changes in the Master Plan they will be forwarded to the City Council.

After the three-hour meeting, residents who had more vigorously opposed the original language in the Master Plan were elated. Jim Wettlaufer, who frequently spoke at both City Council and Planning Commission meetings voicing opposition to designating 89 North Shore Drive as commercial was pleased with the outcome of the meeting.

"We came to every City Council meeting and we did the work just like the City Council did," Wettlaufer said. "I think they came up with a reasonable solution."

ZBA grants variance on property that lacks parking

James Windell

Stacy DuPree waited anxiously as the Zoning Board of Appeals discussed her request for a variance on her property at 79 Park Avenue in South Haven.

DuPree asked the ZBA for a variance in order to use her house for a short-term rental. The problem, however, was that Section 2203.06 of the City's Zoning Ordinance requires on-site parking. Her house at 79 Park Avenue has three bedrooms and would require two off-street parking spaces. The property has a curbed area, but less than 11 feet of the driveway is on the lot. Cars parked are about half on her property and halfway in the municipal right-of-way. Therefore, in order to receive a special land use permit, a variance from the parking requirement would be necessary.

This matter came before the ZBA and was scheduled for a public hearing on January 26, 2026, after which the ZBA would decide on granting the variance.

Prior to the public hearing, DuPree spoke before the ZBA and indicated that her property is so configured that on-site parking is impossible. However, she told the Board that there is parking on the street and that this would not cause a problem in the neighborhood.

Since no residents appeared for the public hearing, there was no opposition to a variance. Zoning Administrator Kelly Getman-Dissette indicated to the ZBA that the only concern was the parking issue. The Board discussed the parking issue – something they have indicated that is always a concern in the City of South Haven. All variance requests must be reviewed under Article 24 by the ZBA and the property must meet the standards set forth by Section 2408. After reviewing all 8 standards and finding that the property was not disqualified by any of the standards, a motion was made to approve the variance request.

The motion was passed unanimously.

Now the matter must go before the Planning Commission to get a special land use permit since the variance is approved. The matter will appear on the Planning Commission agenda in coming months.

Although relieved that she was successful in this step of the process, DuPree said that the next stage is going before the Planning Commission. "There are no guarantees," she said about what the Planning Commission might decide. "Nothing is certain."

Conference scheduled in Carlotto lawsuit postponed

By James Windell

A scheduled Rule 16 case conference in the lawsuit Pat Carlotto brought against the City of South Haven was postponed.

The case conference, which was to take place on the phone between Federal District Judge Paul L. Maloney and the two parties on January 30, 2026, was postponed when the case was transferred to Magistrate Judge Phillip J. Green, who is also in the United States District Court for the Western District of Michigan.

Sgt. Pat Carlotto filed a federal lawsuit in November, 2025, alleging that South Haven city officials retaliated against him over participation in a lawsuit filed by another officer three years ago. The suit states that he was qualified to have been selected as South Haven Police Chief.

A Rule 16 case conference in U.S. federal courts is basically a pretrial meeting during which the judge and the parties plan how the case will proceed, set deadlines, manage discovery, and explore settlement. Ordered under Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, such a meeting is essentially the court's way of taking early control of the case to keep it efficient, organized, and on track.

Judge Maloney had previously ordered the case conference stating in his order that he would review the joint status report and explore methods of expediting the disposition of the action by "Establishing early and ongoing case management; discouraging wasteful pretrial activities; establishing limitations on discovery; facilitating the settlement of a case; establishing an early, firm trial date; and improving the quality of the trial through thorough preparation."

When the case was transferred to Magistrate Judge Green, the conference was cancelled so that Judge Green could reschedule at a time that fit in his schedule. Cases are frequently transferred to magistrate judges to help manage the heavy workload of federal courts. However, District judges retain ultimate authority and review magistrate judges' recommendations when required.

A clerk in Judge Green's office was unable to say when the case conference would be rescheduled.

Eddie Polk speaks to Ward One Action Committee

By James Windell

Eddie Polk brings a particular vision to his new role as a South Haven City Council member. The way he sees his role is to help bring about a collaborative spirit amongst the council members.

Polk talked about his vision and how he hopes to make a difference on the City Council at the Ward One Action Committee meeting on Monday, January 26, 2026.

During the meeting at the Bailey Museum, the President of the Ward One Action Committee, Dorothy Sherrod, prior to introducing Polk, said that the Action Committee and its work is all about: community. "It's about coming together and trying to make things better," she said. "As a community, we have the capacity to make a difference."

Polk, the guest speaker, began his remarks by thanking the people who supported him in his campaign for City Council and he said that it was an honor to serve the community on the council. He went on to say that his vision for making a difference as a new council member is to "strive to develop a collaborative spirit amongst the council members." He added that he would personally only engage in debates on issues and concerns "which are based on facts, not those which are based on personal interest or concerns."

He also said that he intended to ensure that the intent of South Haven City Ordinances and the Municipal Charter are mutually understood so that "we apply and enforce them in a consistent manner to address existing issues and concerns facing the city."

In his remarks, Polk, who had 45 years of experience working for Consumers Energy and for Entergy at the Palisades Nuclear Power Plant, said that he found the recent training for new city council members invaluable. "The topics and the approach were great," he said, "and we really had a good time – not just in learning but getting to know each other as well."

He mentioned that during the training there was discussion about the culture city council members might desire as a model for the community. He said he wanted a culture based on trust and integrity. In the training, he said, there was also attention given to the roles and responsibilities of various positions on the city council and in the city's government.

"It's important that we all stay in our lanes and be responsible for only what our role involves," he said.

He ended his remarks by saying that it's important for city council members to connect with each other to establish healthy, functioning, and professional relationships that help them achieve results. "It's about connecting with one another," he concluded.
